

Quality, Environment, Health and Occupational Safety Policy

ETAP is committed to exceed in meeting the requirements of its customers by applying the current version of international standards for quality ISO 9001, environment ISO 14001 and occupational health and safety ISO 45001 through its work in the field of paper manufacturing of all kinds - in the city of Burg Al Arab. Health and safety of workers, individuals, visitors and contractors affected by the company's activities, equipment, buildings and information will be maintained by applying international standards for the environment ISO 14001 and occupational safety and health ISO 45001.

- It aims to meet the current and future high-quality needs of local and international customers according to the contracts concluded with them by 100% by applying international standards for quality ISO 9001
- Working to meet customer needs and continuous improvement of the management system
- Preserving the environment and the health and safety of employees as a strategic goal for the company that all employees work to achieve through strict procedures consistent with standards for achieving quality and preserving the environment, health and occupational safety
- The company's management has developed this policy in line with its objectives. Therefore, this policy must be well understood and available to all levels of the company's employees.
- Working in a team spirit and maximizing the concept that quality, environment, health and occupational safety are the responsibility of all employees
- It is also available to customers and other interested parties, and the company has committed itself to meeting all customers' needs in terms of quality, maintaining non-environmental pollution, and maintaining the health and safety of workers, visitors and contractors through skilled and trained labor, good application and continuous improvement.
- The performance of activities will not be at the expense or privacy of documents and information by educating employees about the issues and objectives of quality, environment, health and occupational safety.
- Intensifying efforts to prevent any injuries, harm to health, damage or loss of property, and non-pollution of the environment through programs for quality, environment, health and occupational safety, and adherence to all laws in the Arab Republic of Egypt.
- Identifying and managing risks for all company operations
- The policy and objectives of quality, environment, health and occupational safety are reviewed periodically in Top management Review meetings. It is monitored when available for any distribution and the policy is modified to be suitable for the company's objectives.

Updated on 1-1-2022

General Manager
Eng. / Mohamed Fathy Ashour